BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits the records relating to the arrears due by the defaulter licensees, viz, Rs 946-14-6 & Rs 100, and recommends that they may be written off the accounts as being irrecoverable

NOTES AND ORDERS.

From the records it is seen that though efforts were made by the Excise and Revenue authorities to cancel the licenses, yet the parties have tried to retain the shops till the end of the lease by petitions to the D authorities and the Dy Comnr even in May 1902. and by offering a surety. The lessees however do not appear to have been very earnest about the work of the shops. The property of all these appears to have been previously encumbered or was the subject of some litigation in the civil Court. From Oct 1903 to Dec 1906 no action was taken to recover the dues and the subsequent correspondence relates to the amount to be remitted etc.

The defaulters had no tangible security to proceed against. The Excise Comm considers that it will serve no useful purpose to get the explanations of the Officers concerned. At the time of the lease, ~~they all~~ the licensees appear to have been solvent but subsequent events have proved that the properties were all not available for sale on account of the excise arrears due by them.

A draft sanctioning the remission of Rs 946-1 6/6 Rs 1006 is submitted for orders.

A. No. 1

Sir,

I have the honor to state that in the annual auction sales for the year 1901-02, Subbappa and Lingannaiya jointly purchased th Mugur, Dasaggeri and Holageri toddy shops of T. Narsipur Taluk for Rs 175/- a month. As per rules they deposited Rs 525/- being three months rent as security for the proper fulfilment of their con--tract They paid the khists regularly up to the end of November 1901 but became defaulters in December 1901. The Amildar advertis these shops for resale and no one came to bid for them. Hence the shops were actually closed for the remaining period of the lease.

2. After deducting the interest of Rs 10-5-0 on the arrears the balance of the deposit amount of Rs 514-11-0 was adjusted towards th arrears. There yet remains a balance of Rs 711-13-0 due by the defaulters under shop rent as shown in the margin

Demand for the year		Rs 2100-0-0
Colllection.-		1388-3-0
Monthly khist	Rs 873- 8-0
Adjustment of deposit. .	514-11-0
	Rs 1388- 3-0
Balance		Rs 711-13-0

Chamrajangar Taluk.	Rs 30-10-2
T.Narsipur Taluk.	203-10-4
Total	Rs 234- 4-6

-fore.

3. These defaulters had taken up trees in T. Narsipur and Chamrajnagar Taluks to work their shops during the same year. They had to pay the total amount of Rs 234-4-6, being the balance of second instalment of tree-tax, as shown in the margin Aggregate amount of arrears outstanding against these defaulters is Rs 946-1-6 therefore

4. In the same year one Oblegowda purchased the Kaliyur toddy shop of T. Narsipur Taluk for a monthly rental of ₹ 20/- He deposited ₹ 60/- He paid the khists for July and August 1901 and became a defaulter in September 1901. The shop was cried out for resale on 18th January 1902, 21st January 1902 and 5th February 1902 and no bids were offered for it. One Kalegowda submitted a tender on the 12th January 1902 to the Range Inspector for ₹ 10/-. The Range Inspector forwarded it to the Amildar who submitted the same to the Deputy Commissioner with the resale records on the 21st Feb--ruary 1902. The tender was accepted and the man began to work the shop from March 1902. At the close of the lease the defaulter had to pay ₹ 100/- under shop-rent.

5. Steps were taken to recover the arrears in the two cases but no amount was recovered as they possessed no property The Deputy Commissioner states that the arrears are irrecoverable and recommends the remission of the same

6. It is observed that the Amildar failed to resell the Kaliyur toddy shop as soon as the licensee became a defaulter and delayed nearly a month, to submit Kalegowda s tender to the Deputy Commissioner. Oblegowda, being an outsider, should have been made to deposit an additional security towards the due payment of the khists. I am of opinion, however, that it will serve no useful purpose to call for the explanations of the officers and officials who were responsible for the collection at this distance of time.

7. Under the circumstances stated above, I request that the orders of Government may be kindly obtained for the arrears being written off the accounts.

8. The records with the remission statements are submitted for reference and return.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
C. Rajashekaraiah
Excise Commissioner.
